

Melissa Fader | Director of Operations and Membership

Melissa has served as the Director of Operations and Membership for the Council of Institutional Investors since 2022. She joined CII in November 2009 as an Executive Assistant for operations. She was promoted to Membership Services Manager in 2015 and became the Director of Membership and Business Development in 2018.

Melissa graduated from Georgia Southern University in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in political science & history.