MEDIA ADVISORY

CII Fall Conference - Los Angeles, Sept. 29-Oct. 1

Flash Boys* hero Brad Katsuyama, Mason Morfit to speak

Washington, D.C., Sept. 9, 2014 — Members of the media are invited to attend the fall conference of the Council of Institutional Investors (CII) in Los Angeles, starting on Sept. 29, 2014, at the Millennium Biltmore Hotel (detailed agenda). You must register to attend. Stationary cameras by prior arrangement with Amy Borrus. No roving cameras.

CII is a leading voice for effective corporate governance and shareholder rights and represents pension funds and other long-term institutional investors. The 300-400 attendees will include senior investment professionals, business executives and governance experts.

The CII conference starts at 4:15 PM on Monday, September 29, with a talk by Brad Katsuyama, the central figure in Flash Boys, Michael Lewis's book about high frequency trading. A reception for all attendees follows at 5:15 PM. The two member-hosted events earlier on Monday are also open to press. Reporters may attend the plenary sessions on Tuesday, September 30 (8:30 AM – 3:00 PM) beginning with a talk by G. Mason Morfit, president of ValueAct Capital, and wrapping up with a reception at 5:30 PM. Wednesday, October 1, sessions are for CII members only.
