

Daniel Flax, Senior Vice President, joined the firm in 2012. Daniel is a member of the Global Equity Research Department. He is a Senior Research Analyst covering the technology hardware, data networking, and telecommunication equipment sectors. Prior to joining Neuberger Berman, Daniel spent five years at T. Rowe Price, where he covered technology and services. Daniel has an MBA from Columbia Business School and a BA from Dartmouth College.