

Bob McCormick

Executive Director

Bob was appointed Executive Director of the Council of Institutional Investors in July 2024.

Prior to joining the Council, he was Managing Director at PJT Camberview advising public company boards and executives on a range of corporate governance matters. Prior to that, Bob was Chief Policy Officer at Glass Lewis where he was responsible for managing the research and proxy voting recommendations of over 20,000 research reports annually covering public companies in over 100 countries. Before joining Glass Lewis, he was Director of Investment Proxy Research at Fidelity Investments where he managed the annual voting of over 5,000 securities worth $1 trillion held in Fidelity mutual funds and client pension accounts.

Bob serves on the advisory boards of Columbia Law School's Millstein Center for Global Markets and Corporate Ownership and the University of Delaware's Weinberg Center on Corporate Governance.

Bob holds a Bachelor of Arts in History from Providence College, a Juris Doctor from Quinnipiac University and a Graduate Certificate of Special Studies in Administration and Management from Harvard University Extension School.
