

Marie Brodmerkel, Chief of Operations, 2008-present

Marie joined the Council of Institutional Investors in July 2008. As chief of operations, she leads the operations team and executes all policies and procedures pertaining to operations of the Council. She is responsible for the successful execution of two semi-annual meetings a year, which are attended by 500 or more members and guests. The speakers at these meetings have included The President of the United States, The Vice President of the United States, Treasury Secretary, SEC Chair, and many more of the elite members of the capital markets.

She is the administrative liaison to the board of directors. Before joining the Council, Marie owned Parchment, a small stationery business. Her clients included CEOs of General Mills, 3M and Graco. Prior to owning Parchment, she was the administrative director of Specialized Environmental Technologies, an alternative energy company. Marie earned a B.S. in Business Administration from Florida State University
