

Melissa Fader

Membership Services Manager

Melissa joined the Council of Institutional Investors in November 2009. She oversees all membership services including coordinating sponsorship opportunities, maintaining the membership database, billing, member information and service requests and any other needs arising from the membership.

Prior to joining the Council, Melissa worked for the City of Savannah's Tourism and Film Services Department. Melissa earned a B.A. in Political Science from Armstrong Atlantic State University.