Statement from CII Board Chair Anne Sheehan

The Council of Institutional Investors (CII) is committed to inviting speakers with different perspectives to address our members. We regret that Daniel Loeb decided not to speak at CII's spring conference. While it was his decision, we welcome him back at any time. CII is a big-tent organization with a diverse membership of corporate, public and union employee benefit plans, foundations and endowments.

The Council of Institutional Investors (CII) is a nonprofit association of pension funds, other employee benefit funds, endowments and foundations, with combined assets that exceed $3 trillion. The Council is a leading voice for good corporate governance and strong shareholder rights. The Council strives to educate its members, policymakers and the public about corporate governance, shareholder rights and related investment issues, and to advocate on members' behalf.
